

ANSWER SHEET

A Write the verbs in brackets in the present perfect tense.

Example: He
Dad has just watered all the flowers. (to water)

1. He
The plumber has already repaired the broken pipe. (to repair)
2. She
Mrs Robinson has just cooked the dinner. (to cook)
3. They
These pupils have not finished their work yet. (to finish)
4. They
My parents have never watched this film before. (to watch)
5. I have recently started collecting foreign stamps. (to start)
6. Has He
the gardener already mowed the lawn? (to mow)
7. We have not failed our exams, have we? (to fail)
8. He
Jim has never visited this museum. (to visit)
9. It
The cyclone has destroyed a lot of houses and crops, hasn't it?
(to destroy)
10. She
Aunt Sally has not boiled the water yet. (to boil)
11. Has He / she
the teacher already explained the lesson? (to explain)
12. Have you ever climbed Pieter Both Mountain? (to climb)
13. We
Tom and I have just played hide-and-seek. (to play)
14. They have really enjoyed themselves at the party, haven't they? (to enjoy)
15. The floor is wet and slippery because it has just rained here.
(to rain)

ANSWER SHEET

B Write the verbs in brackets in the present perfect tense.

Example: Have you already prepared your breakfast? (to prepare)

1. It
The Wong Family has lived in this locality for several years.
(to live)
2. He
Steven has used a fire extinguisher to put out the fire.
(to use)
3. It
I think that the taxi has not arrived yet. (to arrive)
4. They have always refused to meet me, haven't they?
(to refuse)
5. They
Anna and her parents have moved to a new house since last week. (to move)
6. Have you ever lied to your parents? (to lie)
7. I have already phoned the firemen on the 115. (to phone)
8. They
The scavengers have just removed all the rubbish from the school yard. (to remove)
9. It
The cyclone has caused a lot of damage to our houses and crops, hasn't it? (to cause)
10. They
The factories have released much smoke and harmful gases in the air, haven't they? (to release)

ANSWER SHEET

C Write the verbs in brackets in the present perfect tense.

Example: Has she ever studied English language before? (to study)

They

1. Daren and Shania have not tidied their bedroom yet. (to tidy)

2. Have you already tried this new pair of jeans? (to try)

She

3. Mother has not fried the fish, has she? (to fry)

They

4. The children have not copied all the sentences in their exercise books, have they? (to copy)

They

5. It is said that pirates have buried their treasure on the coast of Mauritius and Rodrigues. (to bury)

She

6. Kate has recently married Prince William. (to marry)

7. I have just accompanied my grandmother to the supermarket.
(to accompany)

It

8. The sun has not dried the clothes on the washing line yet.
(to dry)

She

9. The old woman has not carried a heavy basket, has she?
(to carry)

10. Have you ever hurried up to go to school? (to hurry up)

ANSWER SHEET

D Write the verbs in brackets in the present perfect tense.

Example: The lady has dialled the wrong number, hasn't she? (to dial)

-
1. ^{He} This policeman has controlled the traffic today, hasn't he?
(to control)
 2. ^{He / She} The teacher has not planned the educational outing yet.
(to plan)
 3. ^{He} Has the lazy boy submitted his work yet? (to submit)
 4. ^I have just hummed my favourite song. (to hum)
 5. ^{He} Your father has stopped smoking, hasn't he? (to stop)
 6. ^{We} have already chatted with our friends. (to chat)
 7. ^{He / She} The secretary has already cancelled the meeting. (to cancel)
 8. ^{She} Jenny has slipped on a banana peel, hasn't she? (to slip)
 9. ^{Have} you ever travelled to Europe? (to travel)
 10. ^{They} These naughty boys have robbed your money, haven't they?
(to rob)
 11. ^{He / she} The clumsy child has just dropped a glass on the floor. (to drop)
 12. ^{They} The women have not pegged out before going to work, have they? (peg out)