

ANSWER SHEET

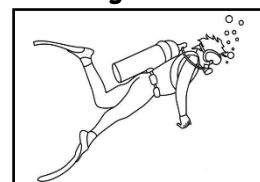

1. Choose the correct word(s) between brackets to fill in the blanks.

- (a) Our body uses oxygen and food to produce energy.
(oxygen, nitrogen, carbon dioxide)
- (b) The amount of oxygen in the air is about 78 %. (78, 21, 0.81)
- (c) One common way of putting out a fire is by pouring water on it.
(oxygen, water, alcohol)
- (d) Carbon dioxide is a gas which is usually used in fire extinguishers.
(Carbon dioxide, Fuel, Water vapour)
- (e) A barometer is an instrument used to measure air pressure.
(thermometer, anemometer, barometer)
-

2. Fill in the blanks with the words given in the list below.

burning - mixture - inflammable - colourless - cylinder - gases - pressure

Diagram 1

- (a) Air is a mixture of gases.
- (b) Diagram 1 shows a diver. He takes in air from an oxygen cylinder.
- (c) Dust, smoke and other poisonous gases in the air may cause lung cancer.
- (d) The gas which is produced during burning is carbon dioxide.
- (e) Inflammable materials such as petrol and paper must be kept away from a source of fire.