

SENTENCE WRITING

Re-arrange the following words or word-groups to form sentences. Begin with a capital letter and end with the correct punctuation mark.

1. taken yet have you bath your
2. someone hear coming I
3. has been since Mrs. Catherine 1975 teaching
4. must have pet canary the cat my eaten
5. to custard ice cream the children prefer
6. is screws one of the loose
7. tell me to do please what
8. cooking sewing my sister and dislikes
9. as told do please are you
10. will start journey we seven o'clock on our tomorrow at 11. plates plastic made of these are
12. next Disneyland I will year visit

13. sells the corner stationery round the shop
14. avocado ever before have you eaten
15. gentle her sisters is the youngest witch more than
16. how wants Stef to skateboard to learn
17. is my with the neighbour beard the man
18. very tired said she was Mary that
19. go the library going to they are to afterwards
20. the house haunted go not we do near
21. know the eclipse do you will occur when
22. when will arrive the youths are wondering the singer
23. have reached must they home by now
24. to decorate helped easter eggs the children we their
25. not finished Sara reading yet the story has